This is the sixth year that the Office of Security and Emergency Preparedness (OSEP) has participated in National Preparedness Month as a coalition member. This year’s theme is "ARE YOU READY?". Posters, bus cards, and table cards reflecting this theme can be seen around campus to encourage personal preparedness in emergencies.

On September 9th, OSEP will host several events and activities that will focus attention on steps that students, faculty and staff can take to better prepare for emergencies.

Events: September 9, 2010

Lecture
"Active Shooter: School Shootings to Terrorism", Tate Reception Hall, 10:00 am - noon, approved as a Blue Card event.

2010 UGA Emergency Preparedness Information Fair
UGA Tate Plaza, 10:00 am - 2:00 pm, safety equipment demonstrations, information booths and displays. The event will also feature a drawing for an emergency kit which includes an emergency light/radio, first aid kit, a Four In One emergency tool and much more. You may either register for the drawing during the event or register on line at www.osep.uga.edu. You do not have to be present to win.

Public Safety Vehicle Display – Vehicles on display between Miller Learning Center and the UGA Bookstore at Tate, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm.

For complete event details, event flyer and registration link for a drawing to win an emergency kit, visit www.osep.uga.edu.

UGA CERT – Fall 2010
The Fall 2010 UGA CERT Program registration is now open for UGA students, faculty and staff. This series will be held September 22 – November 9, 2010. Registration is available on OSEP’s Website www.osep.uga.edu.

If you are interested in the UGA CERT Program, contact Pete Golden, OSEP, at (706) 542-7578 or email: pgolden@uga.edu.